

OCTOBER 2014 | WEFTEC NEW ORLEANS, USA

Successful USA debut - BINDER thanks all visitors and sales partners after a remarkable WEFTEC 2014

A remarkable WEFTEC 2014 has seen the first appearance of BINDER with its VACOMASS® Jet-Valve, the first unique invention in Aeration Air Control system after several decades.

We thank all our sales partners, our customers and all the other visitors for the excellent talks and the utmost promising business opportunities which we have started together during the WEFTEC 2014 in New Orleans.

BINDER is looking forward to continue this exciting development in North America.

About WEFTEC:

The Water Environment Federation's Annual Technical Exhibition and Congress is the biggest meeting of its kind in North America. The 2014 event took place in New Orleans from 27 September to 01 October and could welcome a number of 20.385 participants.
